

Lumenkvist Coatings AB - Workforce and Governance Report 2025

Occupational health and safety system

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented occupational health and safety system that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Lost time injury reporting

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented lost time injury reporting that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Chemical exposure monitoring

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented chemical exposure monitoring that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Contractor safety management

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented contractor safety management that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Working hours policy

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented working hours policy that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Living wage commitment

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented living wage commitment that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Freedom of association

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented freedom of association that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Collective bargaining coverage

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented collective bargaining coverage that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Anti-discrimination policy

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented anti-discrimination policy that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Gender pay gap disclosure

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented gender pay gap disclosure that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Training and skills development

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented training and skills development that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Employee grievance mechanism

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented employee grievance mechanism that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Whistleblowing channel

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented whistleblowing channel that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Anti-bribery and corruption policy

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented anti-bribery and corruption policy that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Code of business conduct

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented code of business conduct that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Board oversight of sustainability

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented board oversight of sustainability that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Executive remuneration linkage

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented executive remuneration linkage that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Supplier code of conduct

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented supplier code of conduct that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Human rights due diligence

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented human rights due diligence that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Modern slavery statement

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented modern slavery statement that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Child labour prohibition

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented child labour prohibition that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Data protection governance

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented data protection governance that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Conflict of interest management

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented conflict of interest management that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Tax transparency

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented tax transparency that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Political contributions policy

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented political contributions policy that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Responsible marketing of products

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented responsible marketing of products that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Community engagement

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented community engagement that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Product stewardship and labelling

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented product stewardship and labelling that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Internal audit of sustainability data

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented internal audit of sustainability data that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Sanctions compliance

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented sanctions compliance that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its workforce and governance disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.

Supplier environmental audits

Lumenkvist Coatings AB should operate a documented supplier environmental audits that is owned by a named function, reviewed at least annually and reported publicly within its environmental stewardship disclosures. The approach should state its scope across the Malmo and Gdansk production sites, the responsible owner, the measurable objective it serves and how progress is verified. Material changes should be approved by the executive team and communicated to staff and suppliers. In 2025 Lumenkvist Coatings AB reviewed this area and reports its indicators against the 2023 baseline, verified by internal audit.